Business Description

This Practice has built a dual-revenue model that converts walk-in urgent care visits into long-term primary care relationships — creating a patient retention engine that most urgent care operators never achieve. Serving pediatric, working-age, and Medicare populations across a multi-state regional catchment area, it functions as a true healthcare hub capturing both immediate and recurring patient revenue under one roof.

At the core of the Practice's competitive value is a proprietary patient database that represents years of accumulated trust and clinical relationships. Growing by hundreds of new records each month, this asset compounds over time and creates a barrier to entry that no new market entrant can quickly replicate.

The operational foundation is equally compelling. A stable clinical and administrative team, documented SOPs, and a turnkey facility allow the business to run with consistency and predictability. The current owner is committed to a structured transition, ensuring that care quality and operational momentum carry seamlessly into new ownership.
